“Everything is easy when you are busy. But nothing is easy when you are lazy.”

Swami Vivekanand

Respected Members,

As we are in the month of May and we all have completed our bank audits. Now we have to face the challenge in order to maintain ethics and integrity. Ethics are involved in many of our professional decisions everyday and they affect us as individuals and also those who around us. New challenges in form GST Audit, Company Audit, Income Tax Returns, Tax Audits etc. But more The Oxford English dictionary defines ethics as: “The moral principles governing or influencing conduct.” When we are dishonest, not only do we lose the trust of others, but we also undermine our own integrity and it can be a double-edged sword at times. What may seem right to one person can seem unspeakable to another. Being aware of how to make ethical decisions is essential practice in the workplace. As an individual in the workplace, having integrity means:

- That your actions are consistent with your words;
- That you are trustworthy, reliable and honest;
- That you communicate honestly and openly;
- That you have appropriate values, and behaviours that reflect these values; and
- That you can admit mistakes and not be afraid to show you care.

So friends we have to apply our rational judgments for the sake the integrity of our profession.

Activities of Branch: In the month of May 2019, the branch has planned various activities for members in form of full day seminar, workshops, GST Certificate Course etc. A night cricket tournament among members is also planned in this month. As always Agra branch is seeking suggestions and support from all the members keep Agra branch one step ahead.

Thanks and regards
